

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOLUME VII.—NUMBER 11.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, JUNE 21, 1878.

WHOLE NUMBER 327.

One square, one insertion, 50 cts.
A liberal discount for regular and constant insertion.
Regular advertisers will find our rates to be as moderate as those of any other respectable paper.
"Business Notices," 15 cents per line. Advertising in Local Columns, 20 cents per line.
Obituary notices, 10 cents per line.
Notices of marriages, 10 cents per line.
Notices of deaths, 10 cents per line.
After the first week, 10 cents per line.
After the first week, 10 cents per line.
After the first week, 10 cents per line.

OUR JOB OFFICE IS COMPLETE
In every particular, and our JOB PRINTER is acknowledged the best in the State.
Prices to suit the times.

MISCELLANEOUS.

STOVES AND TINWARE.

I keep on hand and for sale all kinds of Heating and Cooking Stoves of the best patterns. Also, Tinware in great variety.

GUTTERING AND ROOFING

—AND—

REPAIRING MACHINERY.

All kinds promptly attended to. Give me a call at my shop just above the Commercial Hotel.
289-1
PETER STRAUB, Agt.

ICE! ICE! ICE!

Having gathered a large quantity of

Excellent Ice

I will deliver it in regular quantities in Stanford, every morning, at

ONE CENT PER POUND.

Accounts due at the close of each month. Prompt settlement required.
221-1
R. E. BARROW.

PHENIX INSURANCE CO.

OF HARTFORD, CONN.,

GEO. E. WATERS, Agent,

A. A. WARREN, Assistant.

TIME TRIED AND FIRE TESTED!

ASSETS OVER $2,000,000.

LOSSES PAID, $12,500,000.

Rates as low as those of any reliable Companies.
Losses promptly paid.
Reference, J. H. & S. H. Shanks. 210-1

SPRING & SUMMER

MILLINERY.

—AND—

MRS. M. E. DAVIES.

MILLINER & MANTUA-MAKER

NEAR DEPOT, STANFORD, KY.

Has just returned from the city and is now open.

ELEGANT STOCK

—OF—

SPRING AND SUMMER MILLINERY!

—AND—

LADIES' FANCY GOODS.

Selected with care, and which she will sell at prices less than the cost.
Thanking her friends for past favors, she respectfully solicits orders for the future.
THE MANTUA-MAKING DEPARTMENT will be conducted by Mrs. M. E. DAVIES, who has been in the business for many years, and is well known to the trade.

J. N. DAVIS

GROCERY, CONFECTIONERY

—AND—

VARIETY STORE.

The public are informed that I have opened a Large Stock of Groceries at my store room, near the Depot, in STANFORD, consisting of

GROCERIES, CONFECTIONERIES,

ROOTS, SHOES, HATS, CLOTHING,

QUEENSWARE, GLASSWARE,

TOBACCO, CIGARS, WINES,

LIQUORS, Etc., Etc.

And an endless variety of SUNDRY ARTICLES.

A FAMILY SUPPLY STORE.

Is what I will keep, and the citizens of town, the farmers and country people, will find it to their advantage to patronize me, as I will give you goods for them at their full value.

J. N. DAVIS

Near the Depot.

LOUISVILLE

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

Dickinson Furniture Mfg. Co.

Manufacturers of best styles of Furniture, Mattresses, Bedding and Chairs. Office and Warehouse, Fifth Street, between Main and Market.

J. T. GATHRIGHT & CO.

264 Main St., between 7th and 8th. Wholesale Manufacturers of Saddles, Harness, Collars, etc.; Gathright's Patent Saddle and Harness.

HARRISON & GATHRIGHT.

Manufacturers for Saddlery and Harness and Saddle Hardware. No. 264 Main St., bet. Seventh and Eighth, (North side) Louisville, Ky.

No stock-on or understocked plan can realize the ease and comfort there is in a pair of our

CHEMOKEE MOCCASINS.

Which are easy, reliable and not injured by wetting. Price per dozen pairs, $12. Single pair by mail, $1.35. Address orders to

HIGGINS & CO.

Shoe and Shoe Dealer, Louisville, Ky.

RATES REDUCED TO $1.50 PER DAY.

WHEAT & DURFEE

(Successors to Wheat & Cheney.)

WHOLESALE GROCERS,

—AND—

COMMISSION MERCHANTS.

Agents for Franklin Cotton Mills

No. 231 Main St., bet. Sixth & Seventh.

Opposite Louisville Hotel.

(187-4) LOUISVILLE, KY.

CANDIDATES.

SMITH R. MERRISON

Is a Candidate for Marshal of the town of Stanford, Election first Monday in August.

HON. W. MURKIE FOX

Is a Candidate for Congress, subject to the action of the Democracy.

JUDGE M. J. DURHAM

Is a Candidate for Congress in this District, subject to the action of the Democracy.

JUDGE E. W. TURNER.

Of Madison, is a Candidate for Congress in this District, subject to the action of the Democratic Party.

PHIL. R. THOMPSON, JR.

Of Mercer Co., is a Candidate for CONGRESS in this District, subject to the action of the Democracy.

JUDGE J. B. DENNIS

Is a Candidate for Police Judge of Stanford. Election August next.

H. P. YOUNG

Is a Candidate for Judge of Lincoln County. Election August, 1878.

J. J. LANDRUM

Is a Candidate for Judge of Lincoln County. Election August next.

HON. ROBERT BLAIN

Is a Candidate for County Attorney—election 1st Monday in August, 1878.

PROFESSIONAL.

S. MYERS,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

STANFORD, KY.

Office with Judge Phillips in the Court-house Square. 26-17

BRECK JONES,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

STANFORD, KY.

Office on Lancaster Street. 26-17

MAT WALTON, J. C. KAUFFMAN,

WALTON & KAUFFMAN,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

LANCASTER, KY.

280

J. S. R. W. HOCKER,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

STANFORD, KENTUCKY.

Office on Lancaster Street. 26-17

H. T. HARRIS,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

STANFORD, KY.

156-17 STANFORD, LINCOLN CO., KY.

ROBERT BLAIN,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

STANFORD, KY.

PRACTICES IN all the courts of the 8th Judicial District.

JAMES G. CARTER, SAM. M. BURDET,

CARTER & BURDET,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

MT. VERNON, KY.

Will practice our profession in Rockcastle and adjacent counties and in the Court of Appeals. Special attention given to collections.

LEE F. HUFFMAN,

SURGEON DENTIST!

Office below the P. O., STANFORD, KY.

Having received the Mechanical Apparatus, I am now prepared to do work in every branch of his business.

ARTIFICIAL TEETH

Inserted in the most approved style. 156-17.

A. F. MEERMAN,

DENTAL SURGEON!

STANFORD, KENTUCKY.

Office, South Side of Main Street, near Depot Street. Will remain permanently at his office (until further notice) to attend to those requiring his professional services. Particular attention paid to the preservation and regulation of the natural teeth. Persons from a distance requiring full or partial sets of teeth, can have them inserted in a few hours, in the latest and most beautiful style.

Pure Nitrous Oxide Gas administered when required.

All communications promptly attended to. 161-6m

MISCELLANEOUS.

W. CRAIG,

—WITH—

J. & L. SEASONGOOD & CO.,

WHOLESALE

CLOTHING AND FURNITURE HOUSE

S. W. COR. 24 & VINE STS.

CINCINNATI, OHIO.

J. S. HUGHES

—WITH—

McALPIN, POLK & CO.,

108 PEARL & 110 3rd STS.

CINCINNATI, OHIO.

Wholesale Dealers in & Importers of

FOREIGN & DOMESTIC DRY GOODS

NOTIONS AND

GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS.

I will be glad to continue the connection in business with all my old friends, and promise of all times to protect their interests. 266-6m

J. S. HUGHES.

Notice to Delinquent Taxpayers

LINCOLN COUNTY COURT OF LEVY, June 24th, 1878.

Ordered that the Delinquent Taxpayers on County Levy, this day allowed, be now returned with the sheriff in the exterior County Newspaper, to be next issue, notice that all such Delinquent Taxpayers, who fail to pay their taxes now, owing to the 1st day of October next, will have the pleasure of reading their names, as delinquents, in the exterior County Newspaper, in which the Sheriff is directed to have them published in such place as he shall deem proper.

A Copy Attest: J. BLAIN, Clerk, Lincoln Co. Court.

TAXPAYERS OF LINCOLN.—The Tax Book for 1878 is in my hands for collection, and must be paid (as well as that due previous year), immediately, if you would save cost. If you intend attending to it, don't blame me. I certainly have given enough notice and more than time for your circumstances have justified.

A. M. FLELAND, S. L. C.

The Fearful Famine.

A census has been taken in Madras, British India, to determine the loss of life occasioned by the famine. The conclusion, reached by the authorities is that a little more than half a million persons have perished from starvation—out of a population of two millions; and this in spite of the fact that the greatest exertions were made both by the Government and individuals to give relief to the sufferers. These are the facts representing a single district. A calculation based on these estimates that "the total losses in South India will not be far short of six millions." It is to be feared that few persons in the land of plenty have realized the horrors of the death from which India has suffered. It is fearful to think that six millions of persons, not less than a seventh of the entire population of the United States, should have perished for want of food in this age of the world.

The Total Eclipse of the Sun.

On the 29th of July a total eclipse of the sun takes place under such circumstances as to present opportunities that occur scarcely once in a generation, for the study of some of the most interesting phenomena with which astronomers have to do. The path of the totality of this eclipse runs diagonally across the centre of the United States from Montana to Texas, and is somewhere about 140 miles wide. Many of the best points for observing the eclipse are, therefore, directly accessible by railroads, and several expeditions might be sent out fully equipped to as many different points, without spending so much money upon them all as it would ordinarily take to equip a single expedition to a more distant point.

An ancient city was besieged, and at length obliged to surrender. In the city were two brothers, who had obliged the conquering general, and received permission to leave the city before it was set on fire, taking with them as much of their property as each could carry. The two youths appeared at the gates of the city, one of them carrying their father, and the other their mother.

A young married man of Sioux City, Iowa, not long since received a letter purporting to come from some father daimel who pretended to be smitten. He indifferently answered, a correspondence ensued, and an appointment resulted. He was to meet her in a shady grove, near a running brook, and, arriving at the assignment place, his wife appeared as the smitten daimel.

"Habit" is hard to overcome. If you take off the first letter it does not change a bit. If you take off another you still have a "bit" left. If you take off still another the whole of "it" remains. If you take off another it is not "it" totally used up. All of which goes to show that if you want to get rid of "habit" you must throw it off altogether.

Napoleon visited those sick of the plague in order to prove that the man who could vanquish fear could vanquish the plague also, and was right. It is incredible what force the will has in such cases. I penetrate the body, and puts it into a state of activity which repels all hurtful influences; whilst fear invites and propagates them.

A Boston lady sent her little boy to a drug-store the other day to get a porous plaster, and charged him to be careful not to forget what he was going after. He went out, repeating the words to himself, and in a few minutes came back, saying: "Here, mamma, this is the poorest one I could find."

A muddy stream flowing into one clear and sparkling, for a time runs along by itself. A little further down they unite and the whole is impure. So youth, untouched by sin, may, for a time, keep its purity in foul company, but they finally unite.

Clocks with a phonograph attachment instead of striking the hour will call out in the morning, "Hallo John, time to get up," or may politely invite "Dear Charles," or "Henry" to go home when ten o'clock P. M. arrives.

It will take three years to finish the revision of the Bible which is now being made by the American and British Committees. Until then, people must go to heaven the best way they can with the old one.

Hopkinsville is the jolliest of places The Press gang were kept in the best of spirits, and every man seemed to be a gentleman. (Glasgow Times.)

Babies are the institution and should be guarded from attacks of Colic, Flatulence, etc., by Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. Price 25 cents per bottle.

Your Local Paper.

You might nearly as well forget your churches, your academies and school-houses, as to forget your local paper. It speaks to ten times the audience that your local minister does. It is read eagerly each day and week from beginning to end. It reaches you all, and, as it has a lower spirit and less wisdom than a sermon, it has a thousand times better chance at you. Lying, as it does, on every table in almost every house, you owe to yourselves to liberally add to its support, and exact from it as heightened a character as you do from an educator in your midst. It is in no sense beneath notice and care—unless you yourself are beneath notice and care—for it is your representative. Indeed, in its character, it is the sublimation of the importance, interest and welfare of all. It is the aggregate of your own consequence, and you cannot ignore it without miserably depreciating yourself.

Good Advice and Manners.

Do not smack while eating. Do not eat your nails in public. A man's dress should not be remarkable. Short nails make the finger tips grow broad. In going up or down stairs, precede the lady. Girls who part their hair on the side look "fast." A formal call is very long if it lasts half an hour. Never take bits out of your mouth with your hand. There is too much promiscuous kissing in this country. A young lady should not stretch her feet out in company. A pink ribbon under the chin makes a pale woman look brighter. The lady of the house should receive the guests at a formal reception. In what other country could such a statement as the following be truthfully made? "Two of the workmen who helped to build the executive mansion at Frankfort, Ky., have occupied it as governors. Mr. Metcalf was a stone-mason, and Mr. Fletcher was a hod-carrier." In this country any young man who has good health and sound sense, may rise with industry and economy, to rank and position, no matter what his parentage and circumstances of childhood and youth. Poverty is, in one sense, an advantage, and it gives a training in self-denial, endurance and economy, which are prime requisites for success. (Indiana Farmer.)

REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM.—Take a pint of spirits of turpentine, to which add half an ounce of camphor. Let it stand till the camphor is dissolved; then rub it on the part affected, and it will never fail of removing the pain. Flannel should be applied after the part is well fermented with turpentine. Repeat the application morning and evening. It is said to be equally available for burns, scalds, bruises and sprains, never failing of success.

Most ministers freely assert that the average attendance in churches is in the ratio of three women to one man. Some people go so far as to assert that the women outnumber men three to one in heaven, and the men outnumber women in the same proportion in hell. If our memory of the Bible serves us right, all the angels spoken of in that good book are of the masculine gender.

There lives six miles from Richmond, Va., Mrs. Martha T. Hopkins, who is only thirty-nine years old, and has just married her sixth husband. She was married at twenty years of age; took her second husband when she was twenty-four years old; her third when she was twenty-seven; her fourth when thirty-two, and her fifth when thirty-seven.

A Scotchman has been counting the promises in the Bible. There are thirty-one thousand! There is a promise for every want, and trial, and difficulty. God has no poor children; they are all rich. Any one of God's promises is a rich inheritance, and he gives us thirty-one thousand of them.

What's the time o' day, old woman? said a colored countryman to Aunt Milly, trying to poke fun at the brass chain that held her front door key around her neck. "Look at de town clock, chile. Dat's built for pe' folks."

"Heroine" is perhaps as peculiar a word as any in our language. The first two letters are male; the first three, a female; the first four, a brave man; and the whole word, a brave woman.

Why is a nail driven hard into the wall like an old man? It is in-firm.

Why is hay like a mouse? Because the cattle eat it (cat'll eat it.)

A Lake of Fire.

Mrs. Brassey, an English woman who accompanied her husband in a recent yacht voyage round the world, thus describes the crater of the great Sandwich Island volcano, Kilaua: "We were standing on the extreme edge of a precipice, overhanging a lake of molten fire, one hundred feet below us, and nearly a mile across. Dashing against the cliffs on the opposite side, with the noise like the roar of a stormy ocean, waves of blood red, fiery, liquid lava hurled their billows against the iron-bound headland, and then rushed up the face of the cliffs to toss their gory spray high in the air. The restless heaving lake boiled and bubbled, never remaining the same for two minutes together. * * * There was an island on one side of the lake, which the fiery waves seemed to attack unceasingly with relentless fury, as if bent on hurling it from its base. On the other side was a large cavern, into which the burning lava rushed with a loud roar, breaking down in its impetuous headlong career the gigantic stalactites that overhung the mouth of the cave, and flinging up the liquid material for the formation of new ones. It was all terribly grand, magnificently sublime; but no words could adequately describe such a scene."

Longevity of the Turtle.

Mr. D. H. Willard says that in the year 1838, on his east farm, half a mile south of Newington Junction, he came across a large and beautifully mottled box or hinge tortoise, so called from its power to close its upper and under shells firmly together. Turning it upside down, he with his pocket-knife, inscribed on it his own initials and the date, letting it then go free. In 1868 he found the same turtle again, half a mile west. It had crossed two bridges or forded the streams, and three railroad tracks. A new date was then added, the first inscription being very distinct. Mr. Willard had not seen him until last Saturday, 18th inst., when he discovered it again on his west farm, and near the New Britain town line, about one and one-half miles from the first point named, looking as hale as ever, but not increased in size perceptibly. It was duly marked "1878" and sent on its way. (Hartford Current) May 21st.

In a rural district of Dorsetshire, a young plowman once went courting on a Saturday night. In vain he racked his brain for some interesting topic; but he could call up no subject suitable to the occasion—not one sentence could he utter, and for two long hours he sat in silent despair. The girl herself was equally silent; she no doubt remembering the teaching of the old Scotch song, "Men must be the first to speak," and she sat patiently regarding him with demure surprise. At last he suddenly exclaimed, "Jenny, there's a feather on yer apron!" "What has he wondered if there had been two," replied Jenny, "for I've been sittin' aside a goose 'a' night!"

REMEDY FOR BED BUGS.—Mr. J. R. Muir, of Allensville, Ky., gave us the other day, a simple remedy for bed-bugs that his wife has been using for twenty-seven years, with perfect success. It is strong salt water applied cold to the cracks and crevices and the slats of the bedstead and the ends and seams of the tick. Every March Mrs. Muir thoroughly cleans her beds and makes the above application, and this pestiferous little insect has been driven from her house. It is a simple remedy, has no disagreeable smell, and is well worth a trial. (Clarksville Tobacco Leaf.)

"Got any medicine," asked a boy, entering a drug store the other day. "Yes, lots of it. What do you want?" inquired the clerk. "Oh, it don't make any difference, so that it's lively. Dad is fearful bad." "What ails him?" asked the clerk. "Dunno," said the boy; "but he's run down or fall. He just sits around the stove all day and mopes; he hasn't wallowed proper since Christmas. I guess he's going to die!"

A SILENTLY married woman who lives near Barksville, Va., became so enraged at her husband that she crept up behind him, and after knocking him down by a blow on the head with an axe, deliberately cut his head off with the same instrument. Young men take warning and forego the terrible sin of being benighted, by never becoming a Benedict. It is the only safe chance.

A French scientist, in a communication to the Academy of Sciences, states that he was able, after having carefully investigated the matter for several years, to say that all eggs containing the germ of snakes have wrinkles on the small end, while females are smooth.

Mother's Vacant Chair.

"I go a little farther on in my house and find a mother's chair. It is very apt to be a rocking-chair. She had so many cares and troubles to soothe that it must have rockers. I remember it well. It was an old chair, and the rockers were almost worn out; for I was the youngest, and the chair had rocked the whole family. It made a creaking noise as it moved, but there was music in the sound. It was just high enough to allow us children to put our heads into her lap. That was the bank where we deposited all our hurts and worries. Oh, what a chair that was! It was different from the father's chair—entirely different. You may ask me how? I cannot tell, but we all felt it was different. Perhaps there was about this chair more gentleness, more tenderness, more grief when we had done wrong. When we were wayward father scolded, but mother cried. It was a very wakeful chair. In the sick days of children, father chairs could not take a baby, that chair always kept awake—kept easily awake. That chair knew all the old lullabies, and all those world-old songs which mothers sing to their sick children—songs in which all pity and compassion and sympathetic influence are combined. That old chair has stopped rocking for a good many years. It may be set up in the loft or the garret, but it holds a queenly power yet. When at midnight you went into that shop to get the interesting draught did you not hear a voice that said, 'My son, why go in there?' And when you went into the house of sin, a voice saying, 'What would your mother do if she knew you were here?' and you were provoked at yourself, and you charged yourself with superstition and fanaticism, and you went to bed, and no sooner had you touched the bed than a voice said, 'What a prayerless pillow!' Man! what is the matter? This—you are too near your mother's rocking-chair! 'O, please!' you say, 'there's nothing in that!' I'm five thousand miles away from where I'm born, I'm three thousand miles off from the Scotch Kirk whose bell was the first music I ever heard. I cannot help that. You are too near your mother's rocking-chair! 'Oh!' you say, 'there can't be anything in that!' It is omnipotent, that mother's vacant chair. It whispers; it speaks; it weeps; it carols; it sings; it prays; it thinks; it thinks. A young man went off and broke his mother's heart, and while he was away from home his mother died, and the telegraph brought the sad news, and he came into the room where she lay and looked upon her face and cried out, 'Oh, mother, mother, what your life could not do your death shall effect. This moment I give my heart to God.' And he kept his promise. Another victory for the vacant chair. With reference to your mother, the words of my text were fulfilled. 'Thou shalt be missed, because thy seat will be empty.'—(T. Dewitt Talma.)

"How came you to be a drunkard?" asked a friend of Tom Marshall, in a conversation with him. "Well, I will tell you all about that," said Tom. "I graduated in law at Lexington, and was celebrated by my parents and other relatives, and asked to give a condition precedent to the performance of the ceremony—a document prepared without his knowledge and of the existence of which he knew nothing. Not deigning to notice any one present but for who had plighted him his love and faith, he inquired of her if this demand had been prompted by others, or if it was his own voluntary action. Receiving a reply that it was an act of her own free will, he bade her adieu and retired from the assembly. This circumstance is supposed to have had a lasting influence on Randolph, to have blunted the finer feelings of his nature, and to have given that cast to his character, which enabled him to have continued in his inebriation."

THE EMBLEM OF LOVE.—Love is admittedly the emblem of love

Anderson, Hayes & Co.

The only answer the Great Pacificator and his backers have to make to the damaging and damning revelations of their tool, James E. Anderson, is, that he being by his own confession a dishonest man, is unworthy of belief, and therefore, Hayes & Co., must be innocent. The reasoning is, that a man who would do what Anderson says he did, with reference to the election returns from East Feliciana parish, is a liar, and hence no statement of his at any time, or on any subject, is fit to be considered even, much less believed.

Now let us examine this matter a little. In November, 1876, Anderson declared upon his oath, that in consequence of intimidation, bullying and general devilry on the part of the Democrats, a fair election could not be held, and was not held in the parish in question. He now says that in making that statement he had been told by the "Visiting Statesmen," and in consideration of promises of protection and of reward made to him by said "Visiting Statesmen" on behalf of Hayes.

It is self-evident that this man either lied in November, '76, or that he lies now. In which instance is it most probable that he lied? Is it not exceedingly probable that the temptations which he says were offered to induce him to lie in the first instance were so offered? Is there any thing unreasonable in this statement? Was there, in fact, any office in Hayes' gift which would have been too high a price to pay for such a job under the circumstances? On the other hand it is probable that this man's last statement about this affair is false. Is a man apt to deliberately and voluntarily tell a lie the telling of which makes himself infamous? Is it common in this world when a man confesses a crime to disbelieve his confession and acquit him upon the ground that a man who would commit a crime would necessarily lie even when making a confession about it? Such is the absurd reasoning of those who ask us to discredit Anderson's statement, and to acquit Hayes & Co., because Anderson's conduct has been crooked.

The defenders of Hayes & Co., endeavor to break down Anderson's testimony by saying that he has acted from a revengeful motive—that having been disappointed in his aspiration for office, he became exasperated against Hayes and determined to disgrace him by publishing a falsehood, and therefore his tale should not be listened to. Well, it is true that he was disappointed, that he was broken, and that they were broken. And it is doubtless true, too, that the bad faith of those who made and broke the promises did excite a feeling of resentment in the breast of "red-headed Jim." He would not be human if he were not so affected. It is no doubt a fact, too, that he would not have "squealed" but for the violation of the bargain on the part of his employers. But this by no means proves that his confession is a falsehood. It only proves that like all other human creatures he has some resentment.

It is not denied, nor can it be denied, that a liberal reward was promised Anderson for something by both Matthews and Hayes. It is not reasonable to suppose that so much ado would have been made over this matter by Anderson, and by Matthews for him—that the negotiations and maneuverings about it would have been so long and so urgently persisted in, if his claim had been of an ordinary nature. If he had been seeking a position as a recompense for ordinary honorable political services, neither he nor Matthews as his advocates, would have been in the prosecution of his claim; nor is it likely that Hayes would have marked it as a "special case."

The "true inwardness" of this affair, if ever brought to light, will be found to be of about this complexion: Matthews was sincerely and painfully anxious to give Anderson a satisfactory office in order to quiet him—and Hayes being posted by Matthews as to the importance of quieting him, was equally ready and anxious to meet his demands. But Anderson wanted a higher position than he was thought worthy of, or fit to fill. The high contracting parties split on this. Hayes & Co., thought Anderson asked too much for the dirty job he had performed, and Anderson thought they offered too little. Another difficulty which caused delay in the settlement of this "waxed question" was the fact that Hayes and Matthews could not fulfill their promises without bringing the attention of a certain cabinet officer to the matter. If a consularship was bestowed, (and that was the kind of position which Anderson had set his heart on) Mr. Evans had to be consulted. But he wouldn't do it. Mr. Evans knew why it was a "special case." There was danger that if the "true inwardness" of the thing was revealed to that gentleman it would prove more than his stomach could bear. So the project hung fire, and Anderson's patience "played out," and he concluded that he had been trifled with from the beginning, and in his anger made revelations to outsiders. And the fact that he had made such revelations, coming to the knowledge of Hayes and Matthews, they determined to go back on him. This was natural. The cat being already out of the wallet, there was then no use of tying the string.

It is not denied that the testimony of such a man as Anderson confesses himself to be, uncorroborated, would be insufficient to convict any one of wrong-doing. But his testimony is abundantly and satisfactorily corroborated by documentary evidence as well as that of unimpeached witnesses.

In all the discussions of this hateful and disgusting subject, the most hateful and disgusting thing is the pretense that Hayes was both an innocent and an ignorant party—that he, who was the hero of the great contest, and the chief beneficiary of all the frauds and rascalities perpetrated, was perfectly passive amid all the raging excitement of the time, and had no knowledge of what was transpiring—that he stood by an indifferent spectator, so indifferent as not even to inquire what was going on—that while the entire population of this great country, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, was convulsed with excitement, he alone was perfectly calm and serene—and that his political and personal friends did not think it worth while to apprise him of the interesting events then rapidly occurring—that even Stanley Matthews, his right-hand man and brother-in-law, neglected to report to him from time to time during the terrible crisis what his prospects were, and to apprise him of, or advise with him in reference to the means employed to promote his success!

Whether Hayes was ignorant or not of the bargains with the many perjurers and scoundrels who effected his counting in at the time they were made, there is one thing that the world knows—and that is, that when, after his installation, those scamps presented their accounts, he scolded like a little man with every devil of them without grumbling or delay.

Neway, Nottoway.—The Louisville Male High School turned out this year, 19 graduates, and the Female High School 73. The House on Monday, voted to reduce the tax on tobacco from 24 to 16 cents per pound. The bill will not be brought before the Senate till next session. The House has passed a bill appropriating $250,000 to a Printing House for the blind at Louisville. Congress, after two unsuccessful attempts to adjourn, adjourned at 3 o'clock. The members are rushing their pet measures through, and the scenes in the House were simply disgraceful. Col. J. B. Bowman has been deposed from the Regency of Kentucky University.

The discovery of the body of Mr. Harrison, a grand-son of President Harrison, in a Medical College in Cincinnati, has led to some startling revelations by detectives, at other Colleges. A sickening story is published in the Cincinnati Enquirer from Ann Arbor, Michigan, which states that in a large vat, filled with a preserving preparation, were found fifty or sixty corpses of old men, women, girls and negroes, all in a promiscuous heap, and held down by heavy weights at the bottom of the vat, to pickle them for future dissecting. The bodies were stolen from graves in various parts of the country by a lot of ghouls who live by their nefarious business.

When John Sherman and the other "visiting Statesmen" went to Louisiana in 1876 in the interest of Hayes, (he Sherman) borrowed, in the name of the government, $5,000 from the First National Bank of New York to pay expenses. The Senate on Monday refused to pay the amount, and now it only remains for the Bank to look to Sherman for payment. Without the crushing weight of evidence against him before the Potter Committee, this obtaining money under false pretenses ought to be ground sufficient for his immediate immediate impeachment.

The Democrats in the House, alarmed at the terrible word, "Mexicanization" as applied by the Radicals to the probable results of the Potter investigation, resolved by a vote of 234 to 14, that the Hayes title to the Presidency is so strong that this, nor any subsequent Congress dare not assail it. Proctor Knott, was the only member of the Judiciary Committee who joined against the resolution.

COL. JOSEPH FRAZER, the deliberate slayer of Col. Hanks, in Anderson county, some months ago, has been sentenced to imprisonment in the Penitentiary for life. This is about the first case we have heard of where a man of money and influence has been subjected to such a sentence, and we hope that the noble example set by the Anderson Jurors will be imitated all over the State.

At the annual re-union of the veterans of the war of 1812, at Paris, this week, there were only 25 soldiers present. Twenty-four of the number that went last year have finished the battle of life since then, and the chances are that this is the last re-union until the final meeting beyond the river.

BOYLE COUNTY NEWS.

Boyleville, June 18, 1878.

A party of thieves broke into H. S. McGinnis' meat-house on Friday and Saturday nights, but left without any considerable amount of rations.

ACCIDENT. Mrs. Samuel Menick, of Shelby City, while driving home from this place the other night, was thrown from her carriage and very seriously if not fatally injured.

A RECEPTION. Was given by Mr. Allen and wife to the Senior Class of Bell Seminary on last Thursday evening, in the Seminary building. Quite a number of invited guests were present, and the affair was hugely enjoyed by all.

A FATAL SHOT. Henry Hammer, a white youth, shot a negro named Simon Givens on the 16th inst., so severely that he died on Tuesday last. The only cause alleged for the shooting is that the negro failed to speak to Hammer. The examining trial will be held to-day.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES. The Trustees elect for our public school met last Friday and were sworn into office. They intend to conduct the school on a new and better footing than has been previously done, so as to advance students as far as the Freshman's class of Centre College. A building will be rented for the ensuing year, which will allow the Trustees time to collect funds for the purpose of erecting a new building.

COUNTY COURT DAY. Here was extremely disagreeable, the rain descending all day, which rendered the streets a perfect mire of mud. Capt. T. D. English reported: About 1,000 cattle on the market. Most all changed hands, privately or publicly under the hammer. Prices ranged from 2 1/2 to 50 per pound, the latter being paid for the finest bunch of calves I ever sold upon this market. Mules and horses unchanged, and few outside.

ENTERTAINMENT. An entertainment, consisting of "Mother Goose" tableaux, was given by the little folks of the 1st and 2d Churches on Saturday evening in the Chapel of the D. and D. Asylum. The room was crowded, and the tableaux were very amusing. The enjoyment of the entertainment was enhanced by two very fine recitations, by Miss Annie Bush, of Frankfort. The proceeds were for the benefit of a little orphan girl.

ANOTHER ENTERTAINMENT. A most delightful party was given to the Senior Class of Centre College and the Theta Psi fraternity last Friday evening by A. Dwight Archibald. Each gentleman was permitted to bring a young lady, which made the occasion all the more enjoyable. Elegant refreshments were prepared, and under the excellent management of Miss Agnes Archibald as entertainer, assisted by Miss Lizzie Anderson, the evening was rendered one long to be remembered with pleasure by the guests.

ROCKCASTLE COUNTY NEWS.

Rockcastle, June 18, 1878.

ROCKCASTLE DEMOCRATIC TICKET. COUNTY JUDGE—G. W. McCLURE. COUNTY CLERK—D. N. WILLIAMS. COUNTY ATTORNEY—SAM. M. BURDETT.

SHERIFF—JOHN STEPHENS. JAILER—J. L. JOPLIN. ASSESSOR—J. W. KIRBY. SURVEYOR—F. WALLIN. CORONER—JNO. ALLEN.

THE WHEAT CROP. In this county will be an average yield.

COURT. Next Monday will be County Court day.

MISS MOLLIE HOKER, of Parkville, is visiting relatives in this county. Mrs. Geo. Roberts, of Richmond, is visiting Mrs. Dr. R. W. Brown. A BIRD BASKET PICNIC. Will be given at Brodhead, next Monday, 24th inst., by the Masons and Murphys. "Iron" will tell you all about the arrangements.

ROLL OF HONOR. Below we give the names of those pupils of Mt. Vernon Academy, who attained a mark of from 95 to 100 per cent. in Punctuality, Improvement and Deportment, during the term ending June 7, 1878. Misses Mattie Williams, Mary Hanson, George Hanson, Ida Adams, Mollie Whitaker, Alta Fish, Ella Joplin and Bettie Stephens, and Messrs. Casper Williams, G. H. Albright, Willie Jones, Richard Myers, Willie Mullins, G. A. Adkins, Harry Weber, Hugh Miller and John Vowels.

ANOTHER COMPLIMENT TO W. O. E. We have read with much pleasure the speech of our eloquent and gifted friend, Hon. W. O. Bradley, of Lancaster, delivered to the Literary Societies of Georgetown College, last week. He was kind enough to furnish us with a revised copy. His subject—"The Empire of Decay," is handled in a masterly manner, and the address is replete with majestic truths and brilliant flights of eloquence. Those who were fortunate enough to hear his delivery enjoyed a rare literary treat. If any thing were needed, this speech would suffice to place Mr. Bradley foremost in the rank of Orators in our State.

HOP ME WONT GO UP RAIL RIVER. A man must be governed by circumstances. Occasionally, when it is right, he may follow the bent of his inclinations. The "heated term" is coming on, and of free life is becoming burdensome. We are inclined to go to the country for a spell. We were always fond of shady hollows, sparkling streams, deep groves, and a quiet life on the farm. Just now, we are bound to go to the country; we are determined to "rusticate." We don't like to bid the readers of the INTERIOR JOURNAL "good-bye," but the words must be spoken. Our pencil must take its place on the shelf for a while. We'll come back and use it again directly. But from now until—well, say until after the election, we can't act in the capacity of Reporter. We intend, however, that Rockcastle county shall not be without representation in these columns. "Iron" must write often, and some body must be found to take our place. And now we take off our hat, and with a how to the editors and each of the correspondents, the inclination being more humble as we salute "Sappho," and "B. W. S.," we say to one and all, "Adieu."

SCHOOL EXHIBITION. We regret sincerely that we were unavoidably prevented from being present at the closing exercises of Prof. J. L. Whitehead's school, last Wednesday night. The exhibition at the Court-house was a splendid success; at least it is so pronounced by every body who saw it, and those who did without an exception did well, and show that the Societies are in full bloom of literary prosperity.

PERSONAL. The following young ladies are enjoying our little city this week. We hope that none will feel offended if their names are omitted, as it is next to impossible to procure all of them: Miss Annie Bush, of Frankfort, with Mrs. E. O. Boyle; Miss Nannie Pittman, of St. Louis, with Mrs. Warren; Miss Lucy Taliaferro, of Winchester, with Miss Maggie Robinson; Miss Belle Weidger, of Nashville, with Miss Emma Weidger; Miss Lucy Embury, of Madison, with Mrs. Thos. McRoberts; Miss Julia Phillips, of Lebanon, with Miss Lavinia McFerran; Miss Myra Warren, of Louisville, with Miss Theresa Worthington; Miss Mattie Mitchell, of Tennessee, with Miss E. Weidger; Miss Julia Barfield, of Lexington, with Miss Lela McKee; Misses Alice Watson, of Louisville, and Miss Cox, of Lexington, with Miss Judith Guest; Miss Lillie Morris, of Louisville, with Miss Lucy Bowman; Misses Sadie Crittenden and Lillie Watson, of Frankfort, with Mrs. R. Jacobs; Miss Sallie Hawkins, of Rostonsville, with Mrs. G. O. Wiesen; Misses Mamma Winston and Hallie Osburn, of Louisville, with Mrs. Geo. Welch; Miss Cecil, of Mercer, with Misses Mitchell and Grant, of Louisville, with Mrs. J. S. Van Winkle; Miss Minnie Hendricks, of Flemingsburg, with the Misses Jones; Miss Mollie Brent, of Louisville, with her sister, Mrs. Goodloe; Miss Anna Graves, of Lexington, with the Misses Lillard; Miss Sallie Reid, of Garard, with Miss Lillie Lee; Miss Bettie Starvick, of Garard, with Mrs. Jas. Christmas; Misses Sarah West and Fannie Boswell, of Lexington, with Mrs. C. H. Lucas; Miss Lela Watson, of Louisville, with Miss Caddie Duke; Miss Mattie Bell, of Shelbyville, with the Misses Fisher; Misses Alice Buckner and M. R. McAllister, of Georgetown; Lacy Price, of Lexington; W. R. Owsley and M. E. Kincaid, with Mrs. Wm. Price; Misses Ella and Mattie Givens, of Lincoln, with Mrs. Wm. Evans; Miss Sallie Clelland, of Lebanon, with Mrs. J. C. Faler; Miss Susie Blakemore, of Louisville, at the Military Academy; Misses Susie Weil, of Owensboro, and Lillie Ransome, of Mayfield, with Miss Pattie Beatty; Miss Jennie Lachey, of Lancaster, at the Clemens House; Miss Lillie Kenny, of Fayette, with Miss Maggie Rowland; Miss Paulina Owens, of Hustonville, with Mrs. Davis; Miss Madge Duke returned this week from Missouri, where she has been visiting her sister. Misses Susie Cheek and Mollie Evans returned on Saturday from School at Cornell University. Miss Ella Warren, of Louisville, is at Geo. W. Welch, Jr.'s; Miss Emma Foster, of Bowling Green, Mr. Faulconer's, county. Quite a large number of gentlemen, the most of them old College students, are in town, also, but we have already consumed more space than we have a right to, so we will omit the mention of their names this week.

GRADUATE. Prof. Elliott's annual examination came off last week. His pupils evinced their usual proficiency.

GOING BACK TO MONTICELLO. Dr. J. B. S. Friable is winding up his business with a view of returning to Monticello, his native place, early in July.

COMPLETION OF THE CHURCH. The new church here has at last been completed, and will be opened for public worship on the 5th Sunday in this month, at which time C. P. Williamson, editor of the Apostolic Times, of Lexington, will commence a protracted meeting.

RELIGIOUS. Rev. Mr. Crow, of the Presbyterian church, preached here last Sunday. Your correspondent had the pleasure of listening to an able discourse on the "Evidence of Christianity," at Fairview church, in Garard county, on Sunday, by Elder Joseph Ballou, of Stanford.

ELECTION OF SCHOOL TRUSTEES. Our election of School Trustees on first Saturday, was characterized by the usual amount of wrangling and contention in this district. An element in this community, prompted by sectarian prejudice, makes an effort every year to establish an opposition school to that conducted by Prof. Elliott, but have so far, been unsuccessful, and will, and ought to, as long as such influences control.

DR. T. M. TODD. The remains of Dr. T. M. Todd, late of Litchfield, Ky., a native of this county, were expected on the train last evening, for interment at the family burying ground near Berea. Dr. Todd, we learn, was a young man of more than ordinary promise in the profession. While a student one of the Medical Colleges in Louisville, he secured the prize offered by the Professor of Anatomy, to the most proficient student in his department. And in the field of his professional labors he had succeeded already in establishing an enviable reputation as a successful practitioner.

THE RAISIN AND THE CROPS. The rains of Sunday night and Monday were the heaviest known, in this section for years. Silver Creek was said to have been higher than ever known before. An immense amount of damage has been done to growing crops and fencing, besides the injury to farms by washing away the soil. Streams along the entire length of the floodings in bottom lands is all gone, leaving crops exposed. The near approach of harvest and the scarcity of convenient fencing timber, will subject the farming community along water courses to great inconvenience, besides the heavy losses sustained. The prospect is good for a fine wheat crop in this county. Corn has not been so promising, but the late warm weather has begun to effect a favorable change.

THE GREAT RACE. Between Ten Broeck and Mollie McCarty for $10,000.

On the 4th day of July next, the turf history of our country will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of Kentucky, and Mollie McCarty, the latter invincible queen of California. These two horses are well matched in speed and endurance, and judged by their public performance, it will be difficult to name the winner! Ten Broeck has the best record, he has distanced from one to four miles, and Mollie has run thirteen miles at all distances, from one mile to four mile heats, and all in the most masterly manner possible. He has beaten three horses that have beaten Ten Broeck, and he has beaten Mollie. He has a record of no index of what she is yet capable, we may reasonably expect to witness such a race, at the mile heats, as has never yet been run. The race is to be held on the Louisville and Nashville Club Track, which is one of the finest in the country, and is famous in turf history for the notable races which have been run over it. The charge for admission to the day will be made memorable by the contest between the two equally famous race horses, Ten Broeck, of

